GARANTİYDS
YDS MARATON 17.KELİME DENEMESİ
Mini Deneme

1. The board of directors emphasized that mere compliance was not enough; they demanded absolute ____ to the newly established ethical standards across all international branches to avoid legal repercussions.

A) conformity
B) stagnation
C) resilience
D) infringement
E) rumination

2. Despite the devastating impacts of the unprecedented natural disaster, the local community demonstrated remarkable ____, rebuilding their homes and restoring their local economy in record time.

A) constraint
B) resilience
C) perplexity
D) ramification
E) impetus

3. The sudden and severe increase in global temperatures has provided a new ____ for governments to invest heavily in renewable energy sources rather than relying on fossil fuels.

A) constraint
B) perplexity
C) impetus
D) ramification
E) connotation

4. When faced with what initially appeared to be ____ obstacles during the polar expedition, the team had to rely on their rigorous training and innovative thinking to survive the harsh conditions.

A) indispensable
B) unprecedented
C) superficial
D) insurmountable
E) colloquial

5. The esteemed historical author wrote so ____ during her twenties that she managed to publish a critically acclaimed and thoroughly researched biography almost every single year.

A) detrimentally
B) intricately
C) profoundly
D) superficially
E) prolifically

6. The unexpected heavy snowfall and extreme weather conditions threatened to severely ____ the ongoing search and rescue operations in the notoriously treacherous mountainous region.

A) hamper
B) exhume
C) mitigate
D) eradicate
E) curb

7. Continuous overfishing and unregulated industrial pollution have threatened to completely ____ the vital marine resources, pushing the coastal ecosystem to the brink of collapse.

A) adhere
B) deplete
C) culminate
D) diverge
E) eradicate

8. In order to ____ the adverse economic effects of the global pandemic, the government introduced a massive financial stimulus package aimed at supporting small businesses.

A) encapsulate
B) deteriorate
C) mitigate
D) adhere
E) scrutinise

9. All volunteer participants in the rigorous clinical trial are strictly required to ____ to the prescribed dietary regimen without any exceptions to ensure the validity of the results.

A) deplete
B) culminate
C) diverge
D) adhere
E) eradicate

10. The psychological study highlighted the typical ____ of adolescents, showing how they often mistakenly believe that an imaginary audience is constantly watching and judging their every move.

A) resilience
B) rumination
C) constraint
D) perplexity
E) egocentrism

11. Advanced genetic screening can sometimes reveal a strong ____ to certain hereditary diseases long before any physical symptoms emerge, allowing for early preventive care.

A) predisposition
B) culmination
C) stagnation
D) remediation
E) infringement

12. The astronomical phenomenon visible over the northern hemisphere last night was truly ____, leaving both amateur sky-watchers and professional astronomers in absolute awe.

A) bleak
B) spectacular
C) catastrophic
D) notorious
E) deviant

13. Using the proprietary code and copyrighted material without explicit permission constitutes a clear ____ of international intellectual property rights and can lead to severe penalties.

A) impetus
B) plethora
C) infringement
D) conformity
E) resilience

14. After several decades of rapid and unprecedented growth, the nation's economy eventually entered a prolonged period of ____, characterized by high unemployment and low production rates.

A) culmination
B) remediation
C) ramification
D) stagnation
E) connotation

15. While the term technically refers to anyone who lives alone, it often carries a negative ____ in certain traditional social contexts where communal living is highly prioritized.

A) constraint
B) egocentrism
C) rumination
D) perplexity
E) connotation

16. Following the allegations of widespread fraud, external auditors were brought in to carefully ____ every financial transaction made by the multinational corporation over the last five years.

A) scrutinise
B) hamper
C) mitigate
D) deplete
E) exhume

17. The comprehensive UN report emphasizes that ____ greenhouse gas emissions, rather than natural environmental cycles, are the primary driver of the current and accelerating global warming crisis.

A) detrimental
B) anthropogenic
C) superficial
D) colloquial
E) intricate

18. The sociologist focused her qualitative research on ____ behaviors that strictly fall outside the accepted norms and moral boundaries of mainstream contemporary society.

A) notorious
B) profound
C) deviant
D) unprecedented
E) indispensable

19. Throughout the 18th century, the coastal region became ____ for its treacherous maritime conditions and the ruthless pirates who continuously patrolled its unpredictable waters.

A) bleak
B) catastrophic
C) spectacular
D) notorious
E) intricate

20. Without immediate and substantial financial intervention from the central bank, the future of the failing industrial enterprise looks incredibly ____ and devoid of any hope.

A) unprecedented
B) superficial
C) indispensable
D) colloquial
E) bleak

21. The award-winning author intentionally used ____ language in the character dialogues to make them sound more authentic, accessible, and relatable to the modern reader.

A) colloquial
B) deviant
C) anthropogenic
D) catastrophic
E) notorious

22. Backed by billions in funding, the bold global health initiative aims to completely ____ the deadly infectious disease from the continent by the end of the current decade.

A) encapsulate
B) eradicate
C) mitigate
D) adhere
E) deteriorate

23. The constant loud noises from the construction site and the frequent interruptions in the open-plan office were not at all ____ to deep, highly focused intellectual work.

A) detrimental
B) insurmountable
C) conducive
D) superficial
E) unprecedented

24. Dermatologists consistently warn that prolonged and unprotected exposure to harsh ultraviolet radiation can be highly ____ to one's skin health over the course of time.

A) profound
B) intricate
C) conducive
D) detrimental
E) spectacular

25. The grueling months of rigorous physical training and mental preparation will eventually ____ in the ultimate championship match scheduled to take place this coming weekend.

A) infringement
B) stagnation
C) remediation
D) predisposition
E) culminate

26. The master clockmaker spent several painstaking weeks carefully assembling the ____ mechanism of the highly valuable antique timepiece to ensure its flawless operation.

A) intricate
B) bleak
C) catastrophic
D) superficial
E) colloquial

27. In a desperate effort to ____ runaway inflation and stabilize the economy, the central bank decided to raise interest rates significantly for the third consecutive time this year.

A) exhume
B) curb
C) scrutinise
D) deplete
E) hamper

28. Following the hazardous chemical spill, the environmental protection agency demanded immediate ____ of the severely contaminated soil surrounding the abandoned industrial facility.

A) connotation
B) ramification
C) remediation
D) plethora
E) rumination

29. The bustling local marketplace offered a staggering ____ of exotic spices, fresh tropical fruits, and vibrant handcrafted traditional garments from various indigenous tribes.

A) constraint
B) impetus
C) conformity
D) plethora
E) egocentrism

30. Civil engineers warned the city council that if the minor structural damages to the suspension bridge are not addressed promptly, its overall condition will rapidly ____.

A) mitigate
B) eradicate
C) adhere
D) encapsulate
E) deteriorate

31. Before implementing such a drastic and controversial policy change, the executive committee must carefully consider every potential ____ that could adversely affect their loyal employees.

A) ramification
B) stagnation
C) culmination
D) predisposition
E) infringement

32. Experts testified that the sudden structural failure of the ageing hydroelectric dam could lead to ____ flooding in the valley below, potentially endangering tens of thousands of lives.

A) spectacular
B) catastrophic
C) notorious
D) deviant
E) intricate

33. The ambitious historical documentary attempts to ____ the entire two-thousand-year history of the ancient civilization into a concise, highly engaging two-hour feature film.

A) exhume
B) scrutinise
C) encapsulate
D) curb
E) hamper

34. After discovering new evidence related to the unsolved century-old mystery, the lead detectives formally requested permission to ____ the remains in order to conduct advanced DNA analysis.

A) deplete
B) mitigate
C) deteriorate
D) exhume
E) eradicate

35. Although the young student spoke confidently about the subject, the professor quickly realized that his understanding of the complex philosophical theory was merely ____.

A) profound
B) unprecedented
C) insurmountable
D) anthropogenic
E) superficial

36. The incredibly rapid development and subsequent global distribution of the highly effective mRNA vaccine was widely hailed as an ____ achievement in the history of modern medicine.

A) unprecedented
B) detrimental
C) indispensable
D) conducive
E) bleak

37. Her constant and obsessive ____ on past mistakes and missed opportunities prevented her from moving forward and embracing new, exciting challenges in her professional career.

A) egocentrism
B) rumination
C) resilience
D) perplexity
E) constraint

38. The archeological discovery of the intact ancient manuscript had a ____ impact on our modern understanding of early human civilizations and their complex societal structures.

A) colloquial
B) superficial
C) profound
D) deviant
E) catastrophic

39. Despite their extensive knowledge, the researchers were left in a state of sheer ____ when the experiment yielded results that completely contradicted their initial hypothesis.

A) impetus
B) constraint
C) plethora
D) perplexity
E) connotation

40. In the modern era of rapid digital transformation, a robust and adaptive cybersecurity framework has become an ____ asset for any multinational corporation aiming to protect its data.

A) insurmountable
B) notorious
C) spectacular
D) intricate
E) indispensable